thoroughly researched and fully apa referenced chronological history of film censorship and classification in australia case by case histories of banned films punctuate a detailed account of the evolution of the Australian film classification system and the concurrent development of the Australian adult xxx industry culminating in the establishment of the Australian Sex Party. Former SAR research fellow at Australia's National Film Sound Archive, Robert Cettl gained exclusive access to both the national collection and the highly restricted Australian adult industry archive, the Eros Collection, at the Flinders University of South Australia library to piece together the complete history of film censorship in Australia, progressing through individual banned and censored films including works by such internationally renowned directors as Hitchcock, Buñuel, Forman, Godard, Oshima, Pasolini, Hopper, Lyne, Breillat, Noé, Brass, Bertolucci, Fellini, Ford, Clark, Deshpande, Winterbottom, von Trier. Cettl maps out the specification of offensive material in parallel to the emergence of Australia's adult xxx industry and the Christian morals-driven pressure groups that advocate tighter censorship restrictions in a country that has the dubious honor of being the most censorious of Western democracies. Film censorship is based on the principle of offense to a reasonable adult, an undefined refrain that religious minorities have used to manipulate censorship decisions in their favor. The history of these groups and the political support for their right-wing Christian agenda driven by what Australians term wowseryism makes Australian film censorship unique in its delineation of the aesthetics of offense as grounds for the suppression of free dissemination to the point of seeking mandatory ISP internet filtering and internet blacklisting of all material classified RC or Refused Classification, much of which is available for dissemination throughout Europe and the USA in violation of UN Human Rights Article 19. In this comprehensive study of the socio-political ideology surrounding the censorship of primarily sexually explicit material, pornography, Cettl delineates the aesthetic construction of offense as a transgressive genre and charts the morality-driven religiosity behind their construction as other to a civilized society, questioning whether the categorization of such material as other makes of it legitimate discourse. With extensive case histories never before published, government censorship reports, press clippings, and secret internal memos between some of Australia's most powerful and influential politicians, Offensive to a Reasonable Adult exposes the quagmire of Australian censorship law and the morals cabal of wowsers that dominate the censorship agenda in the so-called clever country.
